DEDICATION

Because of Mrs. Edwards

Our visions have been broadened

Our minds have been enlightened

Our sympathies have been deepened

Our ambitions to be men and women of stature have been kindled

Because of her friendliness our many hours have been brightened.

Because we believe that she, as a teacher and as an individual possesses

Those qualities worthy of our constant emulation.

We, the Senior Class, dedicate this Our Purango of 1957 with admiration, with gratitude, and with affection

to

CLASS HISTORY

"Do you know, Johnny?"

"Know what? Martha.

"How in the world, or how in the Senior Class, did we ever get selected to write the class history. I haven't even been here all the time so I don't know what happened."

"I'm sure I don't know how we were selected, but I do know one thing."

"What's that?"

"I know that we've got until Monday morning to get this thing ready."

"Monday!"

"Yeah! Monday. I'll tell you what, Martha, since you don't know what happened the first six years of school I'll brief you while we are writing. Okay?"

"Okay."

"Well, I don't have a photographic memory, but I'll try to remember everything exactly as it was."

"Let's see now. It was back in September 1945 that thirty-four of us—we were angels then—arrived to start our first day of school. I can see us now, all scrubbed and starched and feeling big, but holding tightly to Mama's hand. There we were; you know Harriett Harrell, Gordon Searcy, Bruce Woodbury, little old Eleanor Haynes, curly haired Betty Brockett, Nelda Pollock, Patricia Hall, Betty Lane Kain, Carolyn Cooper, Mary Charles Roberts—freckles and all, Freddy Alford, skinny Frank Battles, Pete Sharber—he had his front teeth then, Mildren Sharkey,

"In the second grade the magic key opened the door to admit Suzanne Pettyjohn, Donia Waters, Betty Jo Roland, Robert Woodham, Myrtice Dyches. What? Where did I get the key?"

"Well, Betty said we were supposed to have a theme of keys in our annual, so we may as well start unlocking some doors to personalities and friendships as well as doors to learning while we are at it."

"During the third year our key again opened the door so that John Bates, Ramona Duggar, Jeff Cooke, and Ellen Durham could come in, but while they were coming in Robert Woodham slipped out."

"In the fourth year of our school life we let Harriett Thigpen come through the door of knowledge, and we transferred Betty Jo Roland and Myrtice Dyches to other schools."

"By the end of the fifth grade we had opened the door so that Frances Hawkins and Alechia Hatcher could enter. Of course we opened the door with our key, which has become customary by now, you know. Another one slipped out; this time it was Jean Adams."

"When we used our key to unlock the door to the sixth grade, we thought we were getting to be real grown-up, because now we had THREE teachers. Say! Here is where you come in, Martha Dean, along with Kenneth Rice, Wanda White, Beth Long, and Phyllis Cobia. By this time there was quite a large group of us."

"The seventh grade was quite an unusual one, for here, as you will probably remember, a great change came; the boys discovered that there were girls around and the girls . . . well they played coy and hard-to-get. It was in this year that the door was opened and we welcomed Delilah Griner into our class. Robert Woodham came back to us for only a short time, and then he was gone again. He just kept leaving us and coming back. As he was leaving something else slipped through the door. We couldn't quite understand what it was, but Miss Arnold told us that the thing was Steve Syer, a boy from Sao Paulo, Brazil. Just think, a boy from another country who could speak another language. Now, wasn't that something."

"The eighth grade brought forth new adventures . . . walking from class to class, and other interesting changes. Here Laurita Walker came in and Jean Adams came back to us. Johnny Knight left through the door unlocked by our key."

"And how else do you think we would get the door open?"

"Finally, the long awaited time came, and we were at last in high school. Boy, wasn't it embarrassing to get lost and wander up the wrong stairway. The old key (yes, the same one) was getting rather rusty and we just could get the door open wide enough to pull Scott Connell, Betty Jo Roland, Ferris Sandlin, Julia Taliaferro, Delores Clenney, Whitley Brown, Christine Woodward, Barbara Bates, Peggy Brady, Mary Ellen Wall, Betty Sue Hunt, Beth Miller, Joan Griffin, Phyllis Powell, Wallace Weathersby, Archie and Wanda Ehlbert through the door to share our new adventures—the adventures of being ninth graders."

"In the tenth grade, we just couldn't get the door open, because our key was too rusty. Any way we pulled Ronald Durham, Will Little, Rhetta Hester, Kay Martin, and Leonard Harrell, Edward Brooks, Cool Coffey, Buck Powell and Johnny Knight . . . who had come back again, under the door to join us. Billy Allen and Beth Miller were afraid of the rough door treatment so they hopped out through the window while no one was looking and they were gone from us."

"When time came to admit those who would join us for our Junior year, we decided that it was too rough to pull them under the door, so we put a ladder up to the window and I climbed Robert Woodham . . . home again, Margaret Rose LeGalley, Gerald Boutwell, Winifred May and Dorothy Knight."

Then came the Senior Year . . . this year, which was destined to be the best one yet. We found it locked, not with a lock that our rusty old key would fit, but with a brand new combination lock. A few of our sharper students figured out the combination and we entered along with four new members: Pate Bridges, Ann Phillips, Beth Miller . . . who just couldn't stay away, and Micky Doss."

"You know, Martha, although we have had lots of fun and have learned much from our wonderful teachers, the night we have looked forward to for so long will soon be here. Though we may not be so eager to leave we'll walk right up there, receive our diplomas and start out into the world in our chosen ways of life."

CLASS PROPHETY

TIME—1966

PLACE—Dean Residence

INCIDENT—Johnny Fleming, world famous lecturer on TEN EASY WAYS TO DO NOTHING, stops in to visit the gradually fading old maid, Martha Dean.

"Johnny Fleming! What on earth are you doing here?"

"Well, I was passing through town so I decided to come to see you about something that has been bothering me for five or six years."

"What's that?"

"Well, I was just wondering if Betty Brockett is still mad with us for not completing the class prophecy in time for the annual?"

"I sincerely doubt if she's thought any more about it since she and her staff assistants, Shirley Davis and Ellen Durham, became co-editors of Playboy magazine."

"Haven't you heard? Ellen has given up her position on the staff to become U. S. distributor of foreign cars and Shirley followed suit when she became honorary President of Pi KA."

"My goodness, I didn't know that, but then so many things have happened since we graduated. Just think how time has altered the lives of our classmates."

"Yes, it's really surprising to learn how the different lives have changed. As fate would have it, some have become famous, and some are doing the same thing they were doing in high school."

"Take Harriet Harrell, for instance. I never detected any musical ability in her; but she is now a famous recording star. Have you heard her two new releases, THE BREEZE AND I, and KO-KO-MO?"

"No, I haven't. Oh well, they always were her favorites."

"John, you remember Archie Dodson's Barber Shop on Water Street, don't you? Well, Archie now has expanded his shop by adding two barbers, Ferris Sandlin and Scott Connell; and the two best shine boys in town, Buck Powell and Ronald Durham. Also, for the customer's convenience, he has a staff of manicurists composed of none other than Margaret Rose LeGalley, Delilah Griner, Betty Jo Roland, Joy Busby and Ann Phillips."

"You don't say! I'll have to drop by while I'm in town and get the works."

"Since you've traveled so extensively, I know you must have been to some of the world's best restaurants, but we have an establishment that will match any one of your favorites. It's Donaldson's Diner, operated by Tommy Donaldson, who has as his combination waitresses, cooks, and dishwashers, Lauritz Walker, Frances Hawkins, Ila Darley, and Phyllis Cobia."

"How are things doing down at B.H.S.? I hear the English department is still moving at a fast pace, only Eleanor Haynes and Jeanine Hurt are heading it now. The only hold-up in their progress is Mickey Doss. Mickey, who is principal, still doesn't believe in homework."

"Well, you know that old saying, 'If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again.' This certainly can be applied to the politicians of our class. They had a hard fight but they have finally struggled to the top of the ladder. I suppose their struggle must have begun at Boy's and Girl's State, but they are now big wheels in Washington. John Ingram and Pate Bridges are co-chairmen of the Senate subcommittee on Segregation while Beth Long is the first lady Speaker of the House."

"Martha, I was completely astonished to hear that Phoebe Porter had eloped with my old buddy Winfred May, who has become a millionnaire plaster foreman, and I was told this afternoon that they are still honeymooning in Las Vegas, where old Charlie Bush is mayor. Winfred left his trustworthy partners, Billy Allen and Edward Brooks, in charge of their growing company."

"While speaking of companies, the newest boom industry in Bainbridge is the J. G. P. Advertising Company, with Jean Adams, Gretchen Gause and Pat Hall as its executives. Minor members of the staff are Julia Taliaferro, Phyllis Powell, and Delores Clenney."

"What is the latest on those famous millionnaire hunters, Bruce Woodbury, Melvin Marchant, and Frank Battles?"

"The last I heard they had just returned from an elephant safari in Africa. As you probably know, the wide awake scholar of the group, Melvin recently published his book, "The Elephant and I."

"Do you suppose Decatur County will ever need another game warden?"

"I sincerely doubt it. I heard today that Chief game warden, Charles Martin and his associates, Cooley Coffey and Leonard Harrell, have been unemployed since the hunters scanned South West Georgia for its wild game. Tough luck for the fellows, especially Leonard and those nine cute little red headed kids."

"Since Bainbridge has become a resort town, I suppose Larry Nix is doing a booming business out at the "Four Acre."

"Oh, yes, he has Whitley Brown as his assistant now that business has picked up, so that he can still watch his favorite T.V. programs."

"No doubt John, you remember all of the fine athletes in our class; most of them made the 1966 United States Olympic Team. You remember the great basketball team we had. Well, two of its members, Freddy Alford and Jeff Cooke are in the Olympics. They have as their personal coach and inspiration, that famous intramural coach of our high school days, Pete Sharber. Pete didn't get into the ministry after he lost his voice. (He coaches with hand signals.) Then there are those speed demons of the track team, Gorgeous Gordon Searcy and Will Little, who run the 100 meter and 200 meter dashes."

"The Olympic Team wouldn't be complete without the Bainbridge weight-lifters, Johnny Daniels and Kenneth Rice. They have both broken the world record set by that Toccoa, Ga., boy in 1956.

Oh, I'm sure that you've heard all that, but here's some real news! Jimmy Sullivan is STILL lifting weights at the Youth Center. Although he has managed to win the coveted title of 'Mr. Body Beautiful,' he still has no more than a 14-inch bicep. Donia Waters, Jean Johnson, Kaye Martin, and Christine Woodward made good use of their high school basketball experience are now with "The House of David's Wives."

"Oh, I almost forgot, Bobby Higdon is now a pro golfer and makes it a habit to shoot at least one hole-in-one a day. You can see the coaches at Bainbridge High have a lot to be proud of."

"You know, to me about the funniest thing that has happened in our class is that John Bates has become the first and only Rear Admiral of the Navy to have an hour a day free time to construct tinker toy ships."

"Mary Ellen Wall and Dorothy Knight are chief attendants at the Wreck-Remedy Rest Home, operated by Wallace Weathersby. Their worst patient and trouble maker is Alechia Hatcher. She finally went insane trying to convince the cadets that she was a genius and not just another dumb blonde. Some of the other poor inmates are Wandering' Wanda White, and Gerald Boutwell, who insists that he's the 'Moonlight Gambler'."

"You know, Martha, I always try to keep up with the top world news, and I was thrilled to learn that Nelda Pollock, Betty Sue Hunt, Peggy Brady, and Myrtice Dyches recently made history by having the first quadruple wedding in the United States."

"Well Joan Griffin tried very hard to make it an even bigger event, but unfortunately her plans failed at the last minute, poor Joan!"

"It seems to me that marriage was a very popular fad in our class. Rhetta Hester didn't waste any time in being the first to get things started but Betty Lain Kain and Steve Syer certainly gave her a close race to the altar."

"While I'm on the subject of marriage, Barbara Bates came out to see me today. She said she now has only 3 years, 7 months, 2 weeks, five days, 4 hours, 35 minutes and 22 seconds before her long awaited wedding hour. Her fiance had solemnly declared that he will not wed an instant before his thirtieth birthday. Incidentally, her matron of honor will be the widely known divorcee, Suzanne Pettyjohn, who just divorced her fifth husband, and is working desperately for a sixth. Her next victim is believed to be Johnny Knight, now operator of Knight's Sweet Shoppe. Honestly! that Suzie!"

"Can you imagine the confusion and excitement when those nearly delirious old maids, Mary Charles Roberts, Sadie Emanuel, Beth Miller, and Martha Connell try to catch the bridal bouquet when Barbara throws it?"

"Only too well. It'll be a fight to the finish."

"Oh John! Have you heard about the famous "Dynamite Darlings," Phyllis Davis, Romona Duggar, Carolyn Cooper, and Wanda Ehlbert's latest adventure? (They got their experience in the PTA Follies.) They've started the Jungle Ballet Company with an all drum orchestra led by Cecil Simpson and Robert Woodham. They are going to make their first appearance at the Martin Theatre, now managed by Mildred Sharkey and Harriet Thigpen."

"I could just go on talking for hours."

"Speaking of hours, it's getting late and I'd better be on my way. I hope to see you again soon. Oh, Martha, by the way, you will be around for the class reunion on July 4, 1967, won't you?"

Last Will and Testament of Class of 1957

I, Jean Adams, being sane, do hereby leave my desk in Coach Pemberton's room to Billie Barwick.

I, Freddy Alford, in possession of all my senses, do hereby leave the whole of Bainbridge High School to "Titanic."

I, Billie Allen, hereby leave my ability to shoot doves out of season to my brother, Wayne.

I, Barbara Bates, do leave my typing ability to some poor Junior.

I, John Bates, do hereby leave to any upcoming end, all my years as the best dummy holder on the B.H.S. football team.

I, Frank Battles, being of average intelligence, do leave my ability to gain weight to 'little ole Ronnie Dean', who badly needs it.

I, Peggy Brady, being under the influence of banging typewriters and having a spaced brain, do hereby will and bequeath my place in Mrs. Brown's room to Billy Barwick, in hopes that she will master the commercial arts.

I, Pate Bridges, just leave and I'm glad to do it.

I, Betty Brockett, do hereby pass what's left of the Royal Crown on down to anyone who needs to "kick the kinks."

I, Whitely Brown, do leave my shyness to Phil Early.

I, Gerald Boutwell, do hereby will my ability to tell the truth to Sibyl Farnan.

I, Joy Busby, leave my ability (?) to transcribe my shorthand notes to Joan Haire, hoping that she will be more accurate than I have been.

I, Charles Bush, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Haynes to George Sweeney.

I, Delores Clenney, do hereby will my ability to make straight "A" to Pam Powell.

I, Phyllis Cobia, leave my pleasant outlook on life to Joy Shufford.

I, Cooley Coffey, acting normally, do hereby leave to go shoot quail.

I, Martha Connell, do hereby will and bequeath my 'nightly hair setting' to anyone who can put up with it.

I, Scott Connell, will my love for English and my seat in Miss Morgan's room, which I have held down for three years to Edwin Love with the request that he care for it as tenderly as I have done.

I, Jeff Cooke, being only slightly confused, do leave six inches of my height to "Al" Hixon in hopes that he can use it more profitably than I.

I, Carolyn Cooper, do leave.

I, Johnny Daniels, hereby leave my old, crooked double-barreled shotgun to Jimmy Jordan in hopes he will succeed in killing more ducks than I.

I, Ila Darley, do hereby leave my tiny waist to Ethel Smith.

I, Phyllis Davis, do hereby will and bequeath my enormous height to Elaine Ivey in hope that it will be useful to her on the basketball team next year.

I, Shirley Davis, do hereby leave my ability to write letters, which I gained through much practice, to Alice Jean Ruffin, because she will surely need it next year.

I, Martha Dean, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Mrs. Tyson and Mrs. Brown to my brother Jimmy, in hopes that through it, he will come to like school better.

I, Archie Dodson, leave to Nolan Brock, my ability to get out of school.

I, Tommy Donaldson, being of sound mind, bones, and teeth, do leave my mathematical brain to Ronny Dean as it is certainly superior to his present one.

I, Mickey Doss, do hereby leave my ability to get out of school to anyone who wants it.

I, Ramona Duggar, do hereby leave my position on the cheerleading squad to my sister, Frances, hoping that she will be able to master the art of the cartwheel.

I, Ellen Durham, do hereby leave my Jag to Susan McKenzie in hopes that she doesn't take it to heart.

I, Ronald Durham, do hereby will my ability to finish high school before my 20th birthday to Jimmy King.

I, Myrtice Dyches, hereby will to Pam Powell my big mouth, not expecting her to use it as much as I did.

I, Wanda Ehlbert, being intoxicated with learning, do will my ability to pass Math to Katherine Campbell.

I, Sadie Emanuel, do hereby leave my ability to remain sane through all the "lost weekends" to Marilyn Isaacs, as she'll certainly experience many next year.

I, Johnny Fleming, do hereby leave my ability to change my mind, often and rapidly, to anyone who thinks he is fast enough to do the same thing.

I, Gretchen Gause, do hereby will and bequeath to Judy Sandlin and Pam Powell my seat in English in hopes that they pass the courses.

I, Joan Griffin, do hereby will to my sister, Becky, my ability to enjoy school and hope that it may mean as much to her as it did to me.

I, Delilah Griner, do hereby will to Carolyn Bellflower, my ability to get out of school.

I, Pat Hall, do hereby leave my seat in 12th Math to anyone who can do a better job of holding it than I have done.

I, Dee Harrell, do hereby will my height to anyone who admires it.

I, Leonard Harrell, do hereby leave.

I, Alechia Hatcher, hereby will my ability to have fun in high school to my sister, Ann and to Delta Parker.

I, Frances Hawkins, do hereby will and bequeath my desk in Mrs. Brown's room to Helen Whitaker. It is a good one, so treat it well.

I, Eleanor Haynes, being of sound mind, do hereby will my ability to get along with the teachers to my sister, Janet.

I, Bobby Higdon, do hereby will my outstanding (?) golfing ability to any up and coming young golfer.

I, Betty Sue Hunt, do hereby will my ability to type to Judy Sandlin, hoping that she will enjoy it.

I, Jeanine Hurt, having absolute control of all my faculties, do hereby will and bequeath my capacity for enjoying school to Betty Gall Pollock.

I, John Ingram, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my seat in Algebra class to Jack Adams in hopes that he will find it more comfortable than I did.

I, Betty Lane Kain, hereby leave my ability to take dictation at seven words a minute to my sister, Frankie. To my sisters, Frankie, Perl, and Tricia I leave my love for B.H.S. in hopes that they will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Jean Johnson, do hereby leave my ability to hear only when I want to hear to Cile Griffin.

I, Dorothy Knight, do hereby will to anyone who wants it, my ability to sleep in class.

I, Johnny Knight, do hereby will my enthusiasm for school to Titanic Bennett.

I, Margaret LeGalley, hereby leave my desire to graduate to Faye Harrell.

I, William Harmon Little, being sane, do hereby leave my ability to get along with . . . well, all the teachers, to Gary Hollis.

I, Beth Long--

I, Melvin Marchant, do hereby leave my football uniform to Ronnie Dean, in hopes that he can fill it better than I have done.

I, Charles Martin, do leisurely leave.

I, Kay Martin, leave my ability as a bench warmer to anyone who wants it.

I, Winired May, being of empty head, do hereby bequeath my position as baritone player to someone who will do a better job than I have done.

I, Beth Miller, being of sound mind, do leave to my sister, Mikey, all the joy I have had in B.H.S. and the love I have had for it.

I, Larry Nix, being of sound mind, I think, do leave these hallowed halls forever, to those who follow.

I, Suzanne Pettijohn, do hereby will my ability to get out of B.H.S. to my sister, Nancy and hope that she too, will succeed.

I, Ann Phillips, do hereby will and bequeath to Carolyn Atkinson my ability to be a good nurse.

I, Nelda Pollock, leave to Judy Holley my ability to "go steady" through all her high school years.

I, Phoebe Porter, do leave, but oh! how I hate to.

I, Phyllis Powell, leave my ability to drive a car to Judy Sandlin.

I, Rex Powell, will my ability to learn English to my sister, Pam, in hopes that she will absorb more than I have.

I, Kenneth Rice, being sane, do will my ability to finish school in thirteen years to Titanic Bennett.

I, Mary Charles Roberts, bewildered and desperate, do will some of my freckles to any one . . . just so I may be rid of them.

I, Betty Jo Roland, do hereby leave my chair in Shorthand class to Patsy Roland, and hope that she will use it well for the next two years.

I, Ferris Sandlin, do leave my red curls to Gene Hall.

I, Gordon Searcy, do hereby will my place in the Senior Class to my brothers, Billy and Roger and my position on the football team to Gary Hollis.

I, Pete Sharber, being sane, do hereby leave my size 26 football pants to Billy Searcy and hope that he can manage them better than I did.

I, Mildred Sharkey will part of my height to Billie Barwick so she will spend the rest of her life looking down on some people.

I, Cecil Simpson, do hereby leave Bainbridge High School unmarried.

I, Jimmy Sullivan, being sound of mind, do leave my cracked football helmet to whomever will wear it.

I, Steve Syer, do hereby bequeath to George Sweeny my crooked pencil in order that he too, may get the right answers.

I, Julia Taliferro, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass shorthand to Sharlyn Hines.

I, Harriett Thigpen, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Miss Morgan's English IV class to Eleanor Daniels in hope that she may enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Laurita Walker, do hereby will my smallness of stature to Ann Wacasser.

I, Ellen Wall, after much consideration do regretfully leave. Life here has been wonderful.

I, Donia Waters, do hereby leave to Marilyn Whitley my fine set of nerves and hope she will be able to control them during those nerve-wracking games better than I could.

I, Wallace Weathersby, do hereby leave my seat in typing class to Carolyn Atkinson, hoping that she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Wanda White, do leave my enthusiasm for school and for studying to Carolyn Atkinson.

I, Bruce Woodbury, do will my ability to get along with the faculty to all the underclassmen.

I, Robert Woodham, do hereby bequeath my place as a base drum(mer) to Austin Phillips.

I, Tina Woodward, being in full possession of all my faculties, do hereby will my basketball playing ability to Betty Ruth Jester and hope that she will have more success than I have had.

BAINBRIDGE VS. CAIRO

The Bearcats opened the season by winning the first Syrupmakers before a crowd of 4,000.

The first half was a hard fought battle with Kenneth Rice plunging over the goal line in the closing 30 seconds. In the second half Cairo scored twice before the Cats began to click. In the last two minutes, the Cats cut loose on a spine-tingling passing attack which left the crowd limp, and the Cats cold on the three yard line when the clock ran out.

In their initial game of the season the Bearcats let the crowd know they were a hustling club, and nothing but better things could be expected of them.

BAINBRIDGE VS. AMERICUS

7-7

The game opened with the Bearcats kicking off to Americus. Americus was forced to punt, when Sharber charged in and recovered a fumble for the Bearcats. The Cats immediately reeled off two first downs and Rice pushed over for the TD. The extra point was good, due to the spectacular running of Phil Early. The Cats kicked off to the Panthers and behind excellent blocking, the Panthers returned the kick for a TD and added the extra point.

The Bearcats moved inside Americus' 20 yard line on several occasions, but could not generate enough power to score.

BAINBRIDGE VS. COLQUITT

For the first time in three years Bainbridge played Cairo on a dry field.

On the second play of the game, Colquitt fumbled and Bainbridge recovered. Taking advantage of their break the Cats scored in the first minutes of the game with Gordon Searcy rambling around end. Fullback Rice plunged over for the extra point. The Bearcats threatened several times in the last half before they mustered the scoring power for their final tally.

The Pirates offensive attack was held to a minimum by the Bearcat line, sparked by Sharber, Marchant, Sullivan, Little, and Ingram.

BAINBRIDGE VS. ADEL

The Bearcats stormed their way to a win over the Hornets and kept them scoreless until the last quarter.

The Cats took the lead early in the first quarter when Adel fumbled on the first play of the game and Rice carried the pigskin over for the first touchdown for Bainbridge. Adel fumbled again a few minutes later and Daniels eased around the left side for the second touchdown.

Rice went wild and racked up two more TD's for the Bearcats behind the blocking and beautiful running of Alford, Little, Bennett, Sharber, and Marchant.

BAINBRIDGE VS. THOMASVILLE

6-13

The Bearcats were in for a tough one and they knew it. The game opened with Bainbridge kicking off to Thomasville. On the second play of the game, the Bulldogs squeezed out with a 64 yard run to score. This made the Bearcats mad and with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, Rice took a screen pass from Early and ran, faked and bulled his way 33 yards for the one and only Bearcat TD. With 1.43 seconds of play left in the first half, Thomasville scored again.

The second half opened with Thomasville bogging down on our 29 yard line and never getting any further. While the Bearcats threatened again in the closing minutes of the game, due to injuries of many important players, they were unable to score again.

BAINBRIDGE VS. CORDELE

Bainbridge won the toss and elected to receive. Getting off to a spectacular start, Searcy grabbed the pigskin, and went 20 yards. There Alford took the honors for 40 yards. Searcy was called again and took to the one, where Alford went over for the TD.

The Cats kicked off and were forced to punt and Searcy was caught behind the goal line for a Cordele safety. Early in the third quarter, Rice and Alford drove goalward for the Bearcats and Rice climaxed it with a 36 yard center into the end zone for another TD.

Cordele squeezed two TD's out in the 3rd quarter to make the score 19 to 16.

Just as the final goal sounded, Cordele scrambled over the goal line to turn defeat into victory.

BAINBRIDGE VS. CAMILLA

Camilla's class B Panthers proved to be no match for the Cats as they hammered out a 35 to 7 win.

Rice led the way with three TD's and Searcy contributed two. The score at the end of the first half had the Cats leading 28-0.

The sparkling backfield action by Rice, Alford, Searcy, Daniels, and Early made this B.H.S. Homecoming game one to be remembered.

BAINBRIDGE VS. TIFTON

The Bearcats nearly trimmed the Blue Devils 15-0 in Tifton. Rice scored the first TD for the Bearcats, the score coming at the end of an 89 yard march which started near the end of the fourth period.

The second marker for the Cats came in the fourth quarter. A seven yard pass from Early to Larry Wilson, capped the TD drive. Early again put his arm into action by hitting Jimmy Jordan in the end zone for the extra point. With time left for one play, the Bearcats punted into the Blue Devils' end zone where a beautiful tackle by Pete Bridges stopped them for a Bainbridge safety. Tifton threatened only once when they came to the one yard line, but were unable to crack the stubborn, defensive Bearcat line.

BAINBRIDGE VS. QUINCY

20-7

The Cats went into Florida ready and able, but were tripped by Quincy's fast running backs and hard hitting line.

The Cats scored early in the first quarter on a pass play from Early to Duncan, and duplicated it for the extra point.

Although the Cats lost they proved to be good losers, and showed the spirit of a top notch ball club. The score resulted 20-7 in favor of the Tigers.

BAINBRIDGE VS. OCILLA

The Bearcats went to Ocilla to wind up the season. The game ended just as it started, neither team penetrating the others' twenty-yard line, except when Ocilla came down to the five once, but were unable to push over for the TD, due to Wilson, Godwin, and Daniels, backed by the entire Bearcat line.
